Minnesota Education Association Convenes Here October 12-14

AMPHION CHORUS CONCERT WILL INITIATE THREE-DAY CONFERENCE

Initiated by a concert featuring the Amphion Chorus under the direction of Mr. Preston, head of the M. S. T. C. music department, the biennial convention of the Western Division of the Minnesota Education Association will meet at the Moorhead State Teachers College on October 12, 13, and 14.

Perhaps the outstanding speaker on the two-day program will be George E. Sokolsky, internationally known authority on problems of Russia, Japan and China. Mr. Sokolsky, who was born in Utica, N. Y., went to Russia in 1917 to observe the Revolution. Here he edited an Allied war paper in Petrograd until the Soviet government sent him to China. He made a lecture tour of the United States in 1932 and 1933.

Speaking of Mr. Sokolsky's appearance at the state meeting of the Minnesota Education Association, C. G. Schulz, of the M. E. A., states: "He made an excellent contribution to the state meeting; he presented clearly and vividly social, economic, and political conditions of the East and interpreted their relation to the United States. His manner of speaking is easy, simple, winning and pleasing. He contributed largely to the success of the largest meeting of the Minnesota Education Association in its history of 69 years." Mr. Sokolsky is a contributor to several magazines and dailies, among them "Asia," "Atlantic Monthly," "New Outlook," and the "New York Times."

Musical Comedy

Featuring Friday evening's entertainment is a Scotch musical comedy "The Bonnie Brier B'ush," given by the Scottish Musical Comedy players. This play is taken from Ian MacLaren's story, "Beside the Bonnie Brier B'ush," and receives a high rating from many leading newspaper critics.

Visitors at the convention will have an opportunity of hearing Dr. Ralph Sockman, noted New York pastor, author, and radio speaker, who is one of the greatest present day leaders of thought. As an author, his penetrating diagnosis of present day trends in thought is timely while his Sunday afternoon radio lectures and sermons over a radio network create interest which brings recognition from all over the country.

Other Speakers

Other speakers are Miss Jessie Todd, of the School of Education, University of Chicago; Dr. Nels E. Bengtson, of the University of Nebraska, who has appeared here several times; Miss Prudence Cutright, director of curriculum research in the Minneapolis Public Schools, who has done outstanding work in reading; James E. Rogers, one of the nation's leaders in physical education and recreation, who has been consultant and advisor to many state departments of education in the development of health programs in the public schools. From the University of Minnesota comes Harold Benjamin, assistant dean of the School of Education, who is an authority on extra-curricular programs in high schools.

Mr. E. M. Phillips, commissioner of education for Minnesota, will be guest of the association throughout the meeting and will appear on several programs.

New Typewriter Service Bureau Opens On Monday

In order to accommodate those students who desire to typewrite their themes, term papers, notebooks, and miscellaneous papers, a typewriter service bureau is being established in Room 105, MacLean Hall, under the management of Donald Bird, Detroit Lakes. The bureau, equipped with typewriters and prepared to either rent them out to students desiring to use a typewriter, or to do such typing and stenographic work as may be requested, will open Monday morning.

On school days the Bureau will be open at the following hours: 7:00-8:30 a. m.; 10:00-12:00 a. m.; 1:00-1:45 p. m.; and 4:00 to 6:00 p. m. It is planned, if there is sufficient demand, to have the typewriter service available two evenings per week—Monday and Thursday, from 7:00 to 10:00.

University of Chicago Instructor Will Speak At Wednesday Chapel

PHILLIPS, STATE EDUCATIONAL COMMISSIONER, TO APPEAR HERE ON OCTOBER 18

"Drama in China" will be the subject of the lecture to be given at Chapel next Wednesday by Mrs. Bro. instructor in the drama department of the University of Chicago, who has spent six years in China.

E. M. Phillips, State Commissioner of Education, will appear in chapel two weeks hence, October 11. The popular dramatic reader, John Seaman Gams, will present his entertainment at chapel October 18.

"We have not yet touched the possibilities of spiritual development; our progress has been largely confined to the realms of the material," said Dr. Walter Lee Airheart, head of the Wesley School of Religion affiliated with the North Dakota State College, Fargo, in addressing the College chapel audience Wednesday on the subject, "The Stabilizing Influence of Religion."

That the machine, instead of enslaving man by unemployment and hardship, should make him free to develop and enjoy the intangible spiritual values of personality that make life meaningful, was pointed out by Dr. Airheart.

"All is not well with our social order," admitted Dr. Airheart. "Changes must be made; but these changes must not be revolutionary, for then the values of the past are destroyed. Religion is the motivating power which strives to discover and preserve the highest values."

Paving Work Rapidly Nearing Completion

MATERIAL FOR GATEWAY WILL ARRIVE WITHIN NEXT FEW DAYS

With the completion of the semi-circle of pavement about the dormitories to the east and the construction of forms closing in the campus quadrangle at the northwest corner, a rough idea of what the campus will look like when the project is complete may now be had.

It is expected that work on the northwest corner of the quadrangle will be completed next week. Grading is being done as rapidly as the paving is laid. The grade has been leveled up to the pavement on the dormitory semi-circle, and grass seed has been sown in the area east of the Training School.

Stone and ironwork for the ornamental gateway being erected by the Alumni Association will arrive today or tomorrow, and work will be begun immediately on the footings, which have already been prepared.

Plans Made to Organize All-College Women's Club

Plans for the reorganization of the All-College women's organization begun last spring were made at the assembly today. May Tangen told of former work and Eleanor Laing outlined future work of the organization. Further plans were discussed by Miss Lumley and Signe Olson, after which election of officers and appointment of committees formed the organization into readiness for the year's work.

Dragons Will Test Offensive Power Against Highly-Touted Cobber Team in Traditional Grid Classic Tomorrow on Concordia Field

Dragons Polishing Up Passing Attack And Running Plays For Encounter; Will Be Outweighed By Veteran Cobber Eleven; In Good Condition

That the annual Dragon-Cobber game which will be played on the Concordia field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 will be an offensive setto is much in evidence at the Dragon institution, where Coach "Sliv" Nemzek is polishing up his pass attack and running plays. New plays will be used for the first time and in Saturday's contest Coach Nemzek plans to "shoot the works" in order to avert the scoreless ties that have marred the yearly encounters much of the time in the past. The Dragon squad is virtually intact and in good condition after having come out of the Duluth Teachers-Dragon game last Saturday with a 7 to 7 tie. In the Cobber camp, where Frank Cleve has charge of the reins, offensive football is also being stressed.

Because of the fact that rivalry is at a higher pitch than it has been for many years, and because of the strength shown by the two teams, the Dragon-Cobber game this year appears to be a classic. Last year the Cobbers were returned victors.

Dragons Outweighed

Coach Nemzek's Dragons, although outweighed approximately ten pounds to the man, expect to make up some of this deficiency in speed and fight. The entire Cobber eleven will have every position but one, right guard, on the starting lineup filled by lettermen.

With Bailey at tackle and McAllister at guard on the right side of the line, and Schranz and Blaine on the left side at the tackle and guard posts respectively, Coach Nemzek finds his greatest defensive strength. Chisholm and Bjerkness are in fine shape and will see considerable action in Saturday's setto. In the Duluth game last Saturday, Brula demonstrated that he had a great deal of ability and is a capable reserve at either the tackle or guard positions.

Glass, the speedy Dragon back, who Coach Nemzek expects in the future to pull many of the stunts Tonnie Davis used, will see a great deal of action, while Serbin will possibly use his line plunging ability a great deal in Saturday's game. DuCharme, who has shown to great advantage the past week in the backfield, will undoubtedly enter the contest at a half-back position.

McCormick Injured

Walsh McCormick is not expected to be used very much in the Cobber battle because of an infection as well as an ankle injury. McCormick, one of the finest backfield prospects that Coach Nemzek has ever had here at the Dragon institution, can pass, kick, and is a smashing line plunger.

Coach Nemzek, expecting one of the toughest games in years, has the Dragon eleven whipped into the pink of condition and every Crimson player will be ready for action next Saturday.

Dramatic Club Will Initiate Twelve Soon

Flom, Cox, Direct One-Act Plays; Alice French Heads Group

Alice French, Fargo, was selected by Dramatic Club members Tuesday morning to head the group for the coming year. Ruth Best, Fargo, who was elected to the office last spring, is teaching this year.

Two one-act plays will be presented some time during the fall term by members of the club under the direction of Miss Tainter. Bernice Cox, Moorhead, will serve as student director for one play "The Neighbors," by Zona Gale; while Gladys Flom will be student director for the other, "The Wedding," by John Kirkpatrick. Announcement of the play casts will be made at a later time.

Initiation for the students who were recently elected to membership in the group will be held one week from Saturday with Signe Olson, Fargo, Clara Jorgensen, Erskine, and Gladys Flom, Devils Lake, N. D., in charge. New members include Dudley Lockrem, Moorhead; Dorothy C. Golden, Moorhead; Frances Reeder, Aberdeen, S. D.; Harriet Hagerty, Aberdeen, S. D.; Billy Muralt, Glyndon; Zurella Muralt, Glyndon; Leverett Hoag, Harwood, N. D.; William Wallace, Hawley; Elaine Cole, Lisbon, N. D.; Ada Thomson, Hillsboro; Adolph Sorensen, Hallock; and Frances McKibben, Lancaster.

Baby Dragon Gridders Lose to Hawley Team

Having improved greatly in a week of practice, Coach Gilpin's Baby Dragons played a fine game against Hawley, although coming out on the short end of a 12-7 score. During the first half the Baby Dragons outplayed and outfought the heavier Hawley team, ending the half with a 7-6 lead.

Only later in the game when Hawley's greater weight began to take its effect was Hawley able to put over the touchdowns that gave them game. The Baby Dragons will play a return game with Hawley on October 13.

PUNCTUALITY

In listing the virtues or attributes which a college student must have is not punctuality or promptness near the head of the list? Yet, why do so many neglect it or fail to develop this quality?

It is necessary that a college student budget his daily schedule to include his getting to school on time, his appointments with faculty members, committee meetings, and social engagements. There is absolutely no excuse for tardiness.

If a person persists in this habit, he is branded as unreliable. Further, if education is to prepare one for living a worthy and useful life, ought we not to develop this quality early in our educative process? Individual effort expended in the direction of eliminating this lack of punctuality would serve as an impetus for a school-wide campaign with each doing his part.

CHOOSING EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

The past few weeks have been a busy period for the new students in the college. However, college life has now settled into its daily routine and each student who has not yet chosen his extra-curricular activities has some leisure time on his hands.

This is the period in which to look about for extra-curricular activities, of which there are a great number on the campus. These activities call for a display of various talents and abilities on the part of the individual, and every student should find a field in which to specialize.

And to all Freshmen we wish to say this: Choose a worthy activity, one which enables you to participate in a field which you really enjoy and from which you get sufficient pleasure to offset the effort expended. But heed this warning: Don't become involved in too many activities and organizations. To do well what you undertake in one activity will afford one more pleasure than to "half-do" a number of tasks in half a dozen activities.

From The Editor's Semicircle

The women of the College are setting up an organization—how about the men? Perhaps brother and sister groups could be formed.

That football is a varied and interesting sport was evidenced at the game Saturday. Old and young turned out to see our boys "do their stuff."

The Lutheran Students' Association was off to a flying start at its first meeting, with a record attendance. May the Newman Club, the Y. W. C. A., and the Y. M. C. A. enjoy as successful a year.

The Concordia-M. S. T. C. game promises to be a classic. A word to the Frosh is sufficient—you can't afford to miss it.

Have you met the person whom Chaucer described as "seem-ing busier than he was"?

Have you gotten the habit of using the postoffice to an advantage? It is a sure way to send out notices with desirable results.

We are pleased to note that a number of students are taking advantage of the "Open Column." However, may we suggest that you sign your name to the letter when you send it in. Then, if you so request, only your initials will be signed to the article.

Remember, faculty and alumni, that your "Open Column" letters will also be accepted with pleasure.

The Open Column

WELL-SPOKEN, FRESHIE

Heartily agreeing with "A. L.'s" Open-Column letter of last week regarding the tennis court situation, I wish to state that he has, from the viewpoint of a number of students whom I have heard discussing the situation, struck the right note.

On registering here this fall for the first time, I was agreeably surprised at the wonderful facilities which the institution has to offer. I was pleased to note that there were tennis courts, which, though they were not of the best, were at least tennis courts.

Imagine my dismay, then, when I found that the courts were being torn up, and as far as I could find out, no word has been given out about construction of new ones. It was a great disappointment.

Of one thing I am certain. The addition of good tennis courts, cement courts as "A. L." suggests, will help the students of the State Teachers College to fulfill one of the greatest of human urges—that of good, clean physical exercise.

—A Freshman.

UPPER-CLASSMEN, TAKE NOTE

A new student has possibly a more impartial attitude when surveying the College than one to whom it is "old stuff." And so, as a new student, I have one big fault against the College.

Cliques! Snobs! To a new student the atmosphere of the campus is demoralizing, destructive, and disheartening! How many of the older students go out of their way to say "hello" to a Frosh, much less to converse with one? Mighty few. And even the new Sophs would appreciate an encouraging word once in a while. We really don't carry the Black Plague or smallpox around with us to distribute to any guileless upperclassman who may speak to us, and as long as we are going to be at the College for at least nine months, they may just as well accept us as friends and co-workers now as later.

Why doesn't this College have a "Big Sister" or a "Big Brother" organization? It isn't anarchy or socialism to advocate that idea, because after all it's an old plan that has been and is being used successfully on most of the college campuses. If that is impossible, why not have a "hello week," everyone greeting everyone else? A week of that spirit would work wonders to boost M. S., in the opinion of many of the new students.

From personal observation and experience, I know the college is being discredited and condemned because of the undemocratic attitude of its students, and especially the upperclassmen. It seems a shame that when the College is so fine in every other way that such un-Americanism should spoil it.

Come off your pedestal, you Juniors and Seniors, and lend a hand. We'd appreciate it mightily!

—N. D.

Affiliated Schools

The first meeting of the Clearview P. T. A. for this school year was held Friday, September 22. The program included several musical numbers by the primary rhythm band.

Miss Bieri's rural methods classes have been observing a series of lessons in primary reading in the affiliated schools. So far two of these lessons have been given, the first on September 18 at Riverside school where Pearl Shetler is teacher, and the second on September 25 in the primary department at Clearview school, with Florence Winter in charge. The third demonstration will be given by Vera Bell at Oak Mound school in the near future.

Thursday, October 12, the affiliated educators who will be visiting Moor-schools will have open house for rural head for M. E. A. Regular classes will be held rather than special demonstrations.

The teachers of the affiliated schools, together with Miss Bieri, Miss Corneliussen, and Dr. Archer, enjoyed a picnic and steak-fry on the banks of the Buffalo river near Glyndon September 16. Amanda Aarstad and May Tangen, former teachers in these schools, were also guests.

Miss Jones and Miss Frick are making physical examinations of the pupils in the various schools. The work may continue through next week.

According to International News Service, coeds in Soviet Russia are majoring in shoe making and minoring in carpet weaving so that they may prepare themselves for careers in the industrial world.

Dragon Dreams

The true strength of the Dragon lies in the moment of hesitancy wherein he pauses and looks about him, only half-seeing, perhaps, and half-understanding, but nevertheless storing away in his mind during that pause some dimly-formed plan of all that has been given him to do.

Such moments may this column depict—moments when the Dragon stands idly at the door of Thought, with his consciousness drifting in and out as it will.

When leaves come down to the ground, then always the mind of the college student rises up to the level of football. While some may play football with admirable spirit, while others talk it intelligently, the majority yell it voluminously. If a student were gulping coffee and doughnuts in the bleachers, he would tend to increase such yelling, but should that same student be scrubbing the front porch just one block away, he might be tempted, as the writer discovered last week, to put his fingers in his ears.

It is the same with class-room lectures. Let your eye dance on the window sill and sway with the tree tops, then it is that your instructor seems a jabberer of nonsense. But watch, as you follow each successive play of knowledge, how the game grows intense! Then see, oh attentive one, who now yells the loudest!

One ripe, red tomato lies in a gar-

The first game showed us that we had a student body very interested in football but utterly lacking in verbal expression—that is, yelling.

With the Praeceptor staff organized and raring to go, a first-rate year book is predicted. And also notice the good taste Ye Editor displayed in selecting his associate editor and his editors! Not bad at all!

And say, did those Duluth boys liven up that All School Party! What with their versatility at vodvil (?) and their lack of shyness, a good time was had by all. "Let's have some more All-Colleges after our games," is the plea of our coeds.

Maybe the fellows don't think so—but the girls are of the opinion that you have to be a pretty good football player even to be a bench warmer.

Already they are two-soming in the Library. Have you noticed?

Have you met the Pest—I mean the person who talks in a stage whisper in the Library and thinks he's not disturbing you a bit?

And then there is the person who wanted to know if the Dragnet was a humor column

Dragons Come From Behind to Gain Tie With Duluth Eleven

BULLDOGS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF LONE SCORING CHANCE TO COUNT FIRST

By making the most of their lone scoring opportunity late in the second period, the Duluth State Teachers College Bulldogs were able to tie the Dragon eleven by a score of 7-7 on the Dragon Memorial field last Saturday afternoon.

After Coach "Sliv" Nemzek's Dragons had launched a spirited attack from their own 20-yard line down the field in the opening period, the Bulldogs' line held and the Duluth team took the ball on their own 11-yard line on downs. After two successive first downs, aided by a penalty, the ball was on Duluth's 48-yard line. On the next play, Gorham, who was substituted for Mickolajak at right half back, dropped back and heaved a pass to Mike Fedo, who was downed on the Dragon 25-yard line. Shooting a pass to the opposite flankman, Anderson, who stepped across the line, Gorham was largely instrumental in giving the Bulldogs their one touchdown. Gorham's kick from placement was good giving the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead.

Punting Duel

The first quarter was largely a punting duel between Hollister of the Dragons and Sulkowski of the Bulldogs, but near the end of the half with the insertion of Lyle Glass, speedy midget halfback of the Dragons, the Dragon backfield began to register gains.

From the start of the second period, the play was dominated largely by the Dragons. No less than three times did the Dragons advance to Duluth's 5-yard line, only to lose the ball on downs and fumbles.

On the first play of the final period, the Bulldogs were put in the hole when Wilbur Bailey downed Hollister's beautiful punt on the one-yard line. Gorham's kick was partially blocked and Hollister returned the pigskin to the 14-yard line. Hollister cracked off four yards through right tackle and Glass skirted around end for two more yards. A bad pass from center halted the march.

After a Duluth punt, the Dragons marched for three successive first downs on line plays led by Serbin, who showed his plunging ability at this juncture of the game. Hollister made 18 yards on a nicely executed fake-kick play. After a number of line plays the Dragons lost the ball on downs on the Bulldogs' 3-yard line.

Launch Fiery Attack

The Dragons got the ball on Duluth's 44-yard line and again launched a fiery attack. Ruegamer hit center for five yards. Then by snatching two of Scheela's bullet-like passes out of a pile of Duluth Bulldogs, good for two first downs, Maynard Thompson put the Dragons in an advantageous scoring position on the four-yard line. Duluth was penalized to the one-yard line for too many time-outs. After a series of line bucks led by Ruegamer through the powerful Bulldog forward wall, the ball was advanced to the one-foot line. Here with a last desperate effort, Ruegamer sliced through a hole at left tackle for the touchdown. Julian Bjerkness, Coach Nemzek's versatile linesman, booted the ball between the uprights for the point that tied the score.

The play of Gorham and Mickolajak in the backfield for Duluth stood out, while the ball toting of Glass and Hollister and Serbin's and Ruegamer's line smashes were the high lights of the Dragon backfield. The play of Bjerkness and Wohlwend at ends again proved that Coach Nemzek will have plenty of ability at these positions as has been the case in other years.

I'm Telling You

That if the boys are going to beat Concordia tomorrow, there has to be about ten times more pep and energy in the rooters' section. Too well do I remember last year's game.

Do I have to tell you that Glass is unbreakable? He must be tough to give and take it like he did last Saturday. But at that I think he got dented up a bit.

By the way, I am beginning to wonder where the Pep Squad is, or is it still in the making? It was all right last year, but it should be bigger and better, now, a sort of "New Deal."

Duluth's lineup sounded a little Polish (or what have you) but the lineup for tomorrow's opponent will be a profusion of Johnsons, Lees, Swensons, etc. All good old Irish names.

Work Under Way

The first staff meeting was held Wednesday afternoon, at which time plans were outlined for the various sections of the 1934 yearbook. Activity has already begun. To date a large part of the introductory section has been completed, and the theme together with the cover design has been decided on. The work has been planned so that the 1934 yearbook will come out somewhat earlier than last year's edition, according to Mr. Veitch.

A vacancy in the MISTIC staff brought about by the resignation of Vance Hallack, Fargo, from the position of news editor has been filled with the appointment of Arnold Kittleson, Louisburg.

And this is the week that the War Drama is enacted over on the Concordia campus.

Commissioner "Sliv" says that he could use a few certain ground gainers this week.

When Bill Robinson hung his football gaolshes in the Hall of Fame last year the Dragons shortened up their yards gained by several strides.

You could always be sure of seeing the ball going places when you went out to the field on the days that Wild Bill was lugging the porcine pellet around.

However, this year there is another young gladiator who has no fallen arches when it comes to doing a two-step with the ball.

We have reference to young Lyle Glass, a convert to college football from the high school at Mahnomen.
